This ride explores the wooded hills and ponds of western RI, and the mill village of East Killingly, CT. Climb Rt 102 along Chopmist Hill before descending for two miles to the Scituate Reservoir, where there is a picnic area and falls (just half a mile off the route, turn right on Ponagansett just after picnic area). A climb brings you to the village of Clayville and the town of Foster, home of the oldest town hall (1796) in the US. The long route offers Cucumber Hill before rejoining the 35 milers to head to East Killingly, a mill village with dams and mill ponds. On the return, climb Jerimoth Hill, at 812 ft the highest point in RI; the top is visible from the road. Ride finishes with a swift descent past an old sawmill.
